Classes meet at REI Fairfax, unless otherwise noted.

U.S. Peace Corps Thursday, July 15, 7:00 pm

U.S. Peace Corps will be at REI to discuss current projects and what it takes to become a Peace Corps Volunteer. Learn how you can make a difference in communities around the world. Free

Sea Kayaking: Level II Saturday, July 17, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Learn capsized recovery skills and proper use of rescue gear for paddling on open water. We'll practice rescues, so do expect to get wet. Cost: $95 REI members; $115 non-members.

How to Ride a Bike Sunday, July 18, 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

If you feel shaky on two wheels, this is the class for you. Our professional instructors will patiently teach you the basic skills of riding a bike, including how to balance, shift, brake and fall off your bike effectively. Children must provide their own bicycles and helmets. Cost: $45 REI members; $65 non-members.

WWII Revelations in our National Parks Thursday, July 22, 7:00 pm

Join us for a special screening of "Untold Stories from America's National Parks" and then hear about the early 20th century spies who trained in Prince William Forest Park. Free

Backcountry Cooking Class Sunday, July 25, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

In this hands-on field course, REI Outdoor School instructors will teach you how to build a camp kitchen, design a menu and prepare tasty, nutritious meals. All stoves, kitchen materials and food ingredients are provided (with options for both vegetarians and meat eaters). Cost: $45 REI members; $65 non-members.

Introduction to Road Cycling Saturday, July 31, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

This outing is for riders beginning cyclists or those looking for a refresher course. We'll cover basic riding techniques, road riding etiquette, risks, and basic bike maintenance skills.

Cost: $55 REI-members; $75 non-members
